PRODUCT INFO

L'EP "Dream Widow" dell'omonima band metal di "Studio 666" dei Foo Fighters arriva in versione vinile.

"Dream Widow" (titolo che ricorda il nome di un classico cantante black metal) è l'oscuro progetto di Dave Grohl (voce, chitarra, basso e batteria) e del chitarrista Jim Rota dei Fireball Ministry.

Accompagnati in alcuni brani dai tastieristi Rami Jaffee e Oliver Roman, Grohl e Rota portano avanti questo diabolico progetto che ha preso vita con la pubblicazione del brano "March of the Insane".

Il nome e la leggenda dei Dream Widow saranno familiari a coloro che hanno riso e urlato guardando il film horror-comedy dei Foo Fighters "Studio 666".

Nel film, i Foo Fighters tentano di registrare il loro ultimo album nella stessa casa in cui i leggendari (e immaginari) Dream Widow sono andati incontro a una fine tragica e prematura, con conseguenze esilaranti e orribili.

Jimi Hendrix, Burning Desire (2x12" Translucent Orange and Red Vinyl)

Burning Desire is part of Dagger Records authorized Jimi Hendrix 'bootleg' releases. Mixed by Eddie Kramer, the collection presents compelling examples of Jimi's remarkable creative explorations through 1969 and early 1970. In the shadow of Electric Ladyland, the original Jimi Hendrix Experience struggled to remain a cohesive unit and Jimi's ceaseless creative pursuit would lead to experimental sessions with bassist Billy Cox and drummer Buddy Miles and ambitious attempts to integrate fresh musical elements. On these studio recordings, Jimi can be heard developing exciting new material such as "Ezy Ryder," "Cherokee Mist," "Villanova Junction Blues," "Izabella," and "Burning Desire." Burning Desire was originally released on CD via mail order only, seeing it's only LP release on black vinyl as part of a previous Black Friday celebration. The double LP will now be available for the first time since, pressed on Translucent Orange and Red vinyl by QRP as part of the new RSD Encores series revisiting popular releases from the indie retail event's history.

PRODUCT INFO

In 1984, Willie Nelson was coming into the beginning of his popularity, having racked up 16 No. 1 country hits from the previous decade and crossing over to the pop charts multiple times, while starring in a series of hit movies and becoming one of the most recognized figures in popular culture. He united fans across genres and generations and his live shows had already become legendary. In February of that year, he performed in Tokyo to kick off a five-city tour that marked his first time playing in Japan, showing how global his appeal had become. The first shows were at the Budokan, the legendary martial arts hall, and the February 23rd show was recorded and filmed for broadcast, eventually seeing release only as a laserdisc in Japan. However, the video was never released anywhere else and the audio was never released at all...until now. Exclusively on vinyl for participating independent retailers for RSD Black Friday, this performance finds Willie and Family at a monumental point of their powers and includes a 27-song, hit-filled set across two LPs.
